It is further ordered that the defendant shall notify the United States Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of name, residence, or mailing address until all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments imposed by this Judgment are fully paid. If ordered to pay restitution, the defendant shall notify the court and United States Attorney of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances.

Signed this the 21 day of JANUARY, 2010.

 DICKINSON R. DEBEVOISE
 Senior United States District Judge

Defendant: JAMES AURIEMMA
Case Number: 2-Cr. 09-712 (1)

PROBATION

The defendant is hereby placed on probation for a term of 3 years.

While on probation, the defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (on the next page).

The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of commencement of probation and at least two tests thereafter as determined by the probation officer.

If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of probation that the defendant pay any such fine, assessment, costs and restitution and shall comply with the following special conditions:

The defendant shall refrain from the excessive use of alcohol and the use of illegal drugs and shall submit to testing to ensure compliance. It is further ordered that the defendant shall submit to evaluation and treatment as directed by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall abide by the rules of any program and shall remain in treatment until satisfactorily discharged with the approval of the U.S. Probation Office.

The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Office with full disclosure of his financial records to include yearly income tax returns upon the request of the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall cooperate with the probation officer in the investigation of his financial dealings and shall provide truthful monthly statements of his income.

The defendant shall undergo treatment in a mental health program approved by the US Probation Office until discharged by the Court. The Probation Office shall supervise the defendant's compliance with this condition.

The defendant shall follow the directions of the U.S. Probation Office regarding any contact with children of either sex, under the age of 18. The defendant shall not obtain employment or perform volunteer work which includes, as part of its job/work description, contact with minor children. The defendant shall not maintain, within his residence or within any outside establishment within his control or custody, a collection of films, slides, pictures, tapes, videotapes or other form of pictorial representation whose subject matter involves minor children of either sex and can be deemed to be pornographic. The probation officer shall have the right of reasonable search of the defendant, his residence, or any other establishment within the defendant's custody or control, and shall, if necessary, request the assistance of other law enforcement personnel to enforce the provisions of this special condition.

The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in any state where the defendant resides, is employed, carries on a vocation, or is a student, as directed by the probation officer.

The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

The defendant shall submit to an initial inspection by the probation office, and to any unannounced examinations during supervision, of the defendant's computer equipment. The defendant shall allow the installation on the defendant's computer of any hardware or software systems which monitor computer use. The defendant shall abide by the standard conditions of computer monitoring that have been adopted by this court.

The defendant shall submit to an initial polygraph examination and subsequent maintenance testing, at intervals to be determined by the probation officer, to assist in treatment, planning, and case monitoring. The defendant will be required to contribute to the costs of services rendered in an amount to be determined by the probation officer, based on ability to pay or availability of third-party payment.
